Chapel Services

All members of the College and University, and of the wider public, are most welcome at all chapel services.

SUNDAY SUNG EUCHARIST, 11am in the Tunstall Chapel

The service is usually according to the Church of England's Common Worship Order One. The choir sings for most services, which also include a sermon and congregational hymns. The service is followed by drinks on the Tunstall Gallery.

TUESDAY COMPLINE, 9pm in the Norman Chapel

Compline is the ancient monastic service of night prayer, and is short, reflective, and candlelit. The service alternates between choral compline (sung by the Compline Choir) and a said service which often includes a short meditation.

THURSDAY CHORAL EVENSONG, 6pm in the Tunstall Chapel

This sung Evening Prayer service is found in the Book of Common Prayer. The Chapel Choir sings many of the parts of the service, and there is usually a sermon, often given by a guest preacher. Evensong finishes in time for Formal Dinner at 7pm.

MORNING PRAYER is usually said Monday – Thursday at 9am in the Tunstall Chapel. Anyone is welcome to join Hannah for this.

COLLEGE CHRISTIAN UNION meets in the Tunstall Chapel on Friday evenings. For more information contact the CU reps (Daniel Garel and Rosie Gardner).

The CATHSOC rep in Castle this year is Carmen Bowes.

The UNIVERSITY TAIZÉ SERVICE takes place in the Norman Chapel at 9pm on Mondays. For more information, contact John Morris.

The University VOCATIONS GROUP meets about 3 times a term. If you think God might be calling you to ministry, and you would like to begin to explore this with others, have a word with Hannah.

PRAYER REQUESTS can be left on the board at the back of the Tunstall Chapel.

The Chapels

University College has two chapels: the eleventh century Norman Chapel at the foot of the Norman Gallery stairs, and the larger Tunstall Chapel, dating from 1540, which can be reached via the courtyard clock tower stairs. They are your chapels, and you are welcome to use either for private prayer or reflection, or quiet reading. If they are locked, the key is available from the Porters.

The chapels may also sometimes be used for concerts, plays or meetings with the Chaplain's permission.

The Chaplain, the Revd Dr Hannah Cleugh

Hannah is Chaplain and Solway Fellow. She is very happy to see any member of College (of any or no faith tradition) to discuss any matter or problem – personal, practical, or spiritual – or for a cup of tea. The Chaplain's Office is in the Black Staircase, one floor up from the Tunstall Gallery and Hannah can be found there or around college during the week. Please call in or drop an email to hannah.cleugh@durham.ac.uk. (Phone 0191 3344116)

The Chapel Officers

The student chapel committee is responsible for working with the chaplain, and leading many areas of the chapel's life. They are:

Chapel Clerk	Tom Redman
Director of Music	Will Ford
Sacristans	Ranulph Hely Hutchinson and Adam Rebick

Contact Tom (thomas.redman@durham.ac.uk) to be added to the Chapel Mailing List, or if you would like to read, serve, or lead prayers in chapel.
